

University of California

Insurance Requirements

The UC standard insurance requirements for special events hosted by outside groups are as follows:

1. Name the Regents of the University of California, its officers, agents, and employees as insured under the policy for all liability arising out of the outside organization's or group's use of UCSC facilities.
2. Provide for thirty (30) days prior written notice of cancellation.
3. Provide that the Organization's insurance shall be primary and non-contributing with any other valid and collectible insurance or self insurance available to the Regents of the University of California.
4. Provide that the inclusion of more than one insured under the policy shall not operate to impair the rights of one insured against another insured, and that the coverage's afforded by the insurance, except for the limits of such insurance, shall apply as though separated policies had been issued to each insured.
